My Church and I

- ¶ My Church is the place where the word of God is preached, the power of God is felt, the Spirit of God is manifested, the Love of God is revealed, and the Unity of God is perceived.
- ¶ It is the home of my soul, the altar of my devotion, the hearth of my faith, the centre of my affections and the foretaste of heaven.
- ¶ I have united with it in solemn covenant, pledging myself to attend its services, to pray for its members, to give to its support and to obey its laws.
- ¶ It claims the first place in my heart, the highest place in my mind, the principal place in my activities, and its unity, peace and progress concern my life in this world and that which is to come.
- ¶ I owe it my zeal, my benevolence and my prayers. When I neglect its services I injure its good name, I lessen its power, I discourage its members, and I chill my own soul.
- ¶ I have solemnly promised, in the sight of God and men, to advance its interests by my faithful attendance, by reading the Holy Bible, by never neglecting its ordinances, by contributing to its support, by meeting with my fellow members, by watching over their welfare, and by joining with them in prayer and praise and service; and that promise I this day renew before God my Father, Christ my Redeemer, and the Holy Spirit my Sanctifier.

Dr. Stewart's Message

Dear people of St. Paul's Church:—

It is with the greatest difficulty that I can bring myself to realize that it is, indeed, twenty-five years since we dedicated St. Paul's Church to the worship and service of God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. It is with yet greater difficulty that I find words to express the pardonable pride and joy with which I have watched the progress of St. Paul's through the first quarter century of her history.

I had the rare honor of laying the foundations of your present great congregation. It seems like yesterday when, in the autumn of 1901, I went to the Church which had just been moved from Beverley Street to the corner of Notre Dame and Nena Streets. There were thirteen members who came from the Beverley Street Mission. This was the nucleus of the new St. Paul's congregation.

On our first Sunday, we had quite a congregation at both the morning and evening services, and in the afternoon, we held our first session of the Sunday School with an attendance of some forty-three children. It was a small beginning, but very soon we organized a Session and Board of Managers, a Ladies' Aid Society and a Choir. The Church began to grow with the westward growth of the city. At the end of our second year, we were crowded and pulled down a portion of the old building and built a new wing, thus doubling our seating capacity. A year later, we secured a lot at 688 McDermot Avenue and built the present commodious manse. From the day our enlarged building was opened, it was crowded at almost every service and in two years time we were again compelled to provide more room for both Church and Sunday School. Then it was that the great enterprise of building the present handsome stone structure was launched.

I shall never forget the spirit of high courage with which the whole people threw themselves into the building of the new Church. The courage was all needed for, in 1907, just as our new Church was nearing completion, a financial panic seized the whole country, leaving us at our wits end to meet the enormous cost of our new Church building. I shall never forget how the men and women of St. Paul's Church rallied to the support of their Church. The men undertook new and heavier financial burdens: the brave women of the Church organized themselves into working forces, with the result that we got money enough to see us through the panic and out into the days of new and unexpected prosperity.

I do not trust myself to mention by name those devoted men and women who stood by us so nobly in the early years of St. Paul's history, but I shall remember them and honor them till the end of my days.

It is now nearly twenty years since I left Winnipeg and my beloved Church. During all those years the work of the Church has continued to prosper and today St. Paul's occupies a proud place among the great churches of Winnipeg. Dr. Bruce Thornton, my successor, proved himself to be an able and devoted minister. Under his ministry, the work of the Church continued with increasing momentum.

You are now celebrating your Twenty-fifth anniversary. You are under the leadership of a new minister, a man for whom I have the highest regard. Mr. Pilkey's work in my native city of Mrs. Stewart, who was my chief inspiration and loyal helper in those early days at St. Paul's, joins me in heartiest congratulations and in earnest prayer and wishes for your future welfare.

Ever most sincerely yours,

(Sgd.) CHAS. H. STEWART.

Historical Sketch

The congregation had its beginning in February, 1897, and was then known as the Beverley Street Mission. It was situated on Beverley Street, near the corner of Notre Dame Avenue, and was started under the leadership of Rev. Samuel Polson. The building which housed this mission was formerly St. George's Anglican Church at the corner of Bannatyne Avenue and Isabel Street. After six months Mr. Polson asked to be relieved and the mission was supplied by students from Manitoba College for about three years. During this period the mission was under the supervision of the Home Mission Committee of the Presbytery of Winnipeg, with Dr. Bryce as convenor. Among the students appointed to the field were: Messrs. Hugh J. Robertson, A. J. Irwin, Andrew Little, David Lang, Hugh Hamilton and R. A. King, afterwards Dr. R. A. King, principal of Indore College, India.

The growth of the mission was slow, and at the end of five years there were thirteen members and the revenue was less than $200. In 1901 the building was moved to the corner of Nena Street—now Sherbrooke Street—and Notre Dame Avenue, and made ready for worship at a cost of $2,000. Mr. Charles H. Stewart, student at Manitoba College, was placed in charge. On November 11th, 1901, this Nena Street Mission became known as St. Paul's and from this date begins the story of St. Paul's congregation. The seating capacity of the old church was 150. To Dr. Patrick, who was installed principal of Manitoba College on April 12th, 1900, must go a large measure of credit for counsel and practical assistance from time to time. At the end of the first year the membership was increased from 13 to 100, and the seating capacity increased to 300. Mr. Stewart completed his studies and the congregation became an augmented charge, receiving a grant of $250.00 from the Home Mission funds of the Presbyterian Church. In 1904, the seating capacity was increased again, making it 400, and a modest manse built. In 1906 the present site was purchased for $15,000, and the erection of the present church edifice commenced in August of the same year. The seating capacity of the new building is 1,200 and the cost was $47,000 and $5,000 for furnishings, making the total cost $67,000. In 1906 the membership was 351 and the income from all sources $5,700.

LAYING THE CORNER STONE

The laying of the corner stone of the present church building took place on Saturday afternoon, October 5th, 1907. It was a novel experience to listen to the services of such an occasion within the building already roofed and so nearly ready for the formal opening. Much interest was taken in the ceremony and a goodly representation from other Presbyterian congregations in the city was present.

Rev. Charles H. Stewart, minister of the congregation, was in the chair, and with him on the platform were Rev. Dr. Patrick, principal of Manitoba College; Rev. Clarence MacKinnon, Dr. Hart, Dr. A. B. Baird, Dr. C. W. Gordon, Revs. Hugh J. Robertson, Donald Munro, Dr. G. B. Wilson and William Graham.

The service opened with an invocation by the chairman, followed by the singing of the 100th psalm. Dr. Hart read a scripture lesson and the congregation recited the Lord's Prayer.

Mr. C. W. Laidlaw, Clerk of the Session of St. Paul's congregation, read a sketch of the church's history.

Dr. Patrick then laid the corner stone. A collection of the usual articles was deposited in a box and placed in the cavity under the stone. The official act was performed with a silver trowel presented for the purpose and suitably engraved. Dr. DuVal offered the dedicatory prayer. The audience then returned to the church and several addresses were delivered.

Principal Patrick in his remarks, referred to the erection of a number of fine buildings as one of the most remarkable features attending the development of the city during the last ten or fifteen years. Not the least valuable of these was a certain number of churches, among which was the present St. Paul's Church.

Rev. Dr. C. W. Gordon joined the other ministers and Christian people in congratulations to the congregation of St. Paul's on the progress they had made. He was interested in this church as a citizen, as a member of the Presbyterian Church, but chiefly as a Christian living in Canada, and feeling the responsibility of the future. It had been a source of pride and joy to see a former member of St. Stephen's congregation called to be their minister, and to see his work prospering. This young congregation had developed strength and exhibited courage. Dr. Gordon went on to speak of the building as a symbol of the mercy of God to man, as a challenge to the materialistic spirit of the day, and as a mutual pledge of mercy from God and of living for Him and in His service.

Rev. Clarence MacKinnon briefly wished the minister and congregation, elders and members, boys and girls, God's blessing in their new church, and many years of happiness and Christian fellowship.

The ceremony was concluded with the singing of "O God of Bethel," and the benediction was pronounced by Dr. G. B. Wilson.

OPENING SERVICES

The new St. Paul's Church was dedicated on Sunday, December 1st, with appropriate services. The congregation was large, the edifice being well filled. Rev. Principal Patrick, D.D., offered a brief prayer of invocation after which the 10th psalm was sung. The minister, Rev. Charles H. Stewart, read the Old Testament lesson. Principal Patrick recited the Apostles' creed and the congregation joined him in repeating the Lord's Prayer. The hymn, "Thou Whose Unmeasured Temple Stands," was sung. The minister read the New Testament lesson and Principal Patrick offered the prayer of dedication.

Mr. Stewart appealed for contributions of $2,000 in connection with the three first Sundays in the church. There were twenty in the choir and the anthem on this occasion was "Blessing, Honor, Glory and Power." The choir was assisted by Mrs. Flora McIvor-Craig, of Toronto.

The preacher of the occasion for the morning service was Rev. Charles W. Gordon, D.D. His discourse was founded on the ninth chapter of Mark. In the course of an able sermon Dr. Gordon pointed out that the business of this great church, this splendid equipment, is to save the world, to bring the world from death unto life, to beauty, to God-likeness. To do this requires a two-fold passion—a great passion for man, and a great compassion for men—and a great passion for Christ. Dr. Gordon expressed a word of joy, of sympathetic congratulation to the people of St. Paul's for what they had been enabled to do. They had this from his own people with all their hearts, and they had it from a great multitude in the city who wished them well. He exhorted them to form a new covenant with Christ for the saving of souls now unhelped by Him, and so make this church a saving institution. Principal Patrick pronounced the benediction.

Spacious as the new church is, it was quite unequal to the task of accommodating the multitude that flocked to its doors last night. As it was, fifteen hundred crammed themselves into a space designated to seat twelve hundred, and it is estimated that four hundred were turned away from the doors.

The Rev. J. L. Gordon made "The Power of a Consecrated Personality" the theme of his sermon. Wherever there has been a great movement, men of different characteristics have been blended by one master stroke, as for instance in the German Reformation. All down the aisle of the centuries the greatest power of the world had been one man. Number One, in this case, is the only lucky number. When God would move the world of man, he moves one man. Every magnificent achievement, every significant minority that ever blossomed out into splendid majority was the work of one man.

"My last word" said Mr. Gordon, in a peroration unusually touching and eloquent, is this. "Let sympathy be associated with this house. It will be a richer carpet than any you could purchase for this building."

The Rev. Charles H. Stewart took the readings and the prayer and a very beautiful musical service had been arranged by the organist. The singing of "The Lord is my Light" by Mrs. Flora McIvor-Craig, Toronto, in itself, would have lifted any service beyond the ordinary.

SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY

In the afternoon there was a Sunday School rally, which was attended by some five hundred children and their parents. Mr. W. H. Irwin, the provincial superintendent of Sunday Schools, gave an address on "What the Bible Teaches." Mr. H. W. Watson, the superintendent of St. Paul's Sunday School, and Mr. H. F. Kenny, also spoke to the congregation. An orchestra led by James Moir, accompanied the hymns, and Miss Meredith Smith, sang.

The Session of the church at the time of opening the new building was composed of the following: Rev. Charles H. Stewart, Moderator; Rev. Dr. Patrick and Messrs. J. D. Johnson, William Shaw, J. Williams, W. Craig, C. W. Laidlaw (Clerk), T. J. Noble and H. W. Waton.

The Board of Managers: T. J. Noble, Thomas Corbett, James Manson, J. Forsythe, Allan McRae, John Moir, H. F. Craig, M. Thompson, J. Hawley Will, G. H. Ross, J. A. Smith, Andrew Broatch.

Trustees: C. W. Laidlaw, William Mowat and J. D. Johnson.

Treasurer: William Mowat.

Following the Sunday Services, on Monday night a grand opening concert was held, with Mr. Stewart as chairman and Mrs. Flora McIvor-Craig as guest artist. Greetings were received from Mr. Stewart's former congregation at Hamiota. Addresses were given by Dr. Bryce, Revs. J. J. Roy of St. George's Anglican Church, Hugh J. Robertson, who reminded the congregation of the time when the windows of the old church rattled and the building shook as it stood alone on the prairies. A message of congratulation and best wishes was received from Rev. W. A. Maclean of St. Giles Church. Following the concert, refreshments were served in the lecture hall of the church.

"Lest We Forget"

*They shall not grow old as we that are left grow old,
Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn;
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We will remember them.*
